CONGREGATION

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

5781

In Proverbs we read: “The human spirit is the light of God.” Within each of us, God implants a divine spark. Each of us has the obligation to tend this spark and fan it into a flame that will light up one’s own life and the lives of others.

A lit candle can be snuffed out, or it can burn out, or it can kindle other candles. When the flame is passed on to others, the flame will continue to burn long after the original candle has been extinguished.

YIZKOR

We can cherish hopes, embrace values and perform deeds which death cannot destroy.

May we all be charitable in deed and in thought, in memory of those we love who walk the earth no longer.

May we live unselfishly, in truth and love and peace, so that we will be remembered as a blessing, as we this day lovingly remember those whose lives endure as a blessing.

Our generations are bound to each other as children now remember their parents. Love is strong as death as husbands and wives now remember their mates, as parents now remember their children. Memory conquers death's dominion as we now remembers our brothers and sisters, grandparents and other relatives and friends.

The death of those we now remember left gaping holes in our lives. But we are grateful for the gift of their lives. And we are strengthened by the blessing which they left us, by precious memories which comfort and sustain us as we recall them this day.

In memory of relatives and friends

יְזַכֵּר אֱלֹהִים נַשְׁמוֹת קְרוּבֵי וְרַעֲי שֶׁהָלְכוּ לְעוֹלָמָם. הַנְּגִי נוֹדֵר [נוֹדֵרֶת] צְדָקָה בְּעַד הַזְּכָרֶת נַשְׁמוֹתֵיהֶם. אֲנֵא תִהְיֶינָה נְפֻשׁוֹתֵיהֶם צְרוּרוֹת בְּצָרוֹר הַחַיִּים וְתֵהִי מְנוּחָתָם כְּבוֹד, שְׁבַע שְׂמֵחוֹת אֶת-פְּנֵיהָ, נְעִימוֹת בִּימִינָה נֹצֵחַ. אָמֵן.

May God remember the soul of _____ and of all relatives and friends who have gone to their eternal home. In loving testimony to his life I pledge charity to help perpetuate ideals important to him. Through such deeds, and through prayer and memory, is soul bound up in the bond of life. May I prove myself worthy of the gift of life and the many other gifts with which he blessed me. May these moments of meditation link me more strongly with his memory and with our entire family. May he rest eternally in dignity and peace. Amen.

In memory of all the dead

Exalted, compassionate God, grant perfect peace among the holy and the pure, in Your sheltering Presence, to the souls of all our beloved who have gone to their eternal home. May their memory endure as inspiration for deeds of charity and goodness in our lives. May their souls thus be bound up in the bond of life. May they rest in peace. And let us say: Amen.

For a Grandmother

My mother's mother died in the spring of her years,
 and her daughter forgot her face.
 Her portrait, engraved on my grandfather's heart, was erased from the world of images when he died.

In the house, just her mirror remained,
 sunk with age in its silver frame.
 And I, the pale grandchild who does not resemble her,
 peer into it today as into a lake that hides its treasures underwater.

Deep behind my face,
 I see a young woman-
 pink-cheeked, smiling,
 a wig on her head-threading a long-looped earring through the tender flesh of her lobe.

Deep behind my face, shines the bright gold of her eyes.
 And the mirror passes on the family lore:
 She was very beautiful.

For a Grandfather

My grandfather was a farmer.
 The day before he died
 he planted a garden
 A garden that nourished his family through the sunless season of mourning far into the golden season of harvest.

My grandfather was a farmer.
 Before he died he planted a lifetime of seeds.
 Diligently he planted honesty and reverence;

Inadvertently he planted gentleness and humor - Bounty enough to nourish me all the seasons of my life far into the planting season of my child.

For a Parent

Move to the front of the line
 a voice says. and suddenly there is nobody left standing between you and the world, to take the first blows
 on their shoulders.
 This is the place in books where part one ends, and part two begins,
 and there is no part three.
 The slate is wiped not clean but like a canvas painted over in white so that a whole new landscape
 must be started,
 bits of the old
 still showing underneath - those colors sadness lends to a certain hour of evening.
 Now the line of light
 at the horizon
 is the hinge between earth and heaven, only visible
 a few moments
 as the sun drops
 its rusted padlock
 into place.

For a Spouse/Partner

As long as I speak
 your name
 you are not dead

 as long as I think your pain
 I cannot grieve

 the granite marker tells
 your name
 your age

 the bleak horizon
 scars
 the barren hedge

 as long as I you are not dead

For a Child

I will never be able to stop my tears.
 And the day is far off when I will Forget this cruel day.
 Why could we not have died with him?
 His little clothes still hang on his rack
 His milk is still by his bed.
 Overcome, it is as though life had left us.
 We lie prostrate and insensible all day.
 I am no longer young enough
 To try and understand what has happened.
 I was warned of it in a dream.
 No medicine would have helped
 Even if it had been heaped mountain high.
 The disease took its course inexorable.
 It would be better for me if I took A sword and cut open my bowels.
 They are already cut to pieces with sorrow.
 I realize what I'm doing
 And try to come to myself again,
 But I am exhausted and helpless,
 Carried away by excess of sorrow.

For a Child

In many houses
 all at once
 I see my mother and father and they are young as they walk in.

 Why should my tears come,
 to see them laughing?

 That they cannot see me
 is of no matter.

 I was once their dream;
 now they are mine.

For a Suicide

...transcripts of fog...
speak your tattered Kaddish for all suicides:

Praise to life though it crumbled like a tunnel on ones we knew and loved

Praise to life though its windows blew shut on the breathing-room of ones we knew and loved

Praise to life though ones we knew and loved loved it badly, too well, and not enough

Praise to life though it tightened like a knot on the hearts of ones we thought we knew and loved

Praise to life giving room and reason to ones we knew and loved who felt unpraisable

Praise to them, how they loved it, when they could.

On Healing

I had thought that your death
Was a waste and a destruction,
A pain of grief hardly to be endured.
I am only beginning to learn
That your life was a gift and a growing
And a loving left with me.
The desperation of death
Destroyed the existence of love,
But the fact of death
Cannot destroy what has been given.
I am learning to look at your life again
Instead of your death and your departing.

MEMORIAL PRAYER FOR SERVICEMEN

Oh God full of compassion, grant perfect rest beneath the cover of Your Presence to all who have bravely laid down their lives for our country. Shelter them among the holy and pure, who are as radiant as the luminous firmament. Oh source of compassion, bring them ever near to You that their souls be bound up in the bond of eternal life as are the souls of the righteous. And the work of righteousness shall be peace, and the effect of righteousness, quietness and confidence forever. Nation shall not lift up sword against nation; neither shall they learn war any more. Then the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together. Amen.
